Terms & Conditions for Foster Care

The Foster Caretaker acknowledges receipt of animals from Kenosha Forgotten Friends, and in accepting these animals, is entrusted with the care, custody and possession as outlined herein. Foster Caretaker shall ensure the animals receive good care, including appropriate shelter, food, water, medication, grooming, and training as needed. * KFF will provide Foster Caretaker with necessary equipment, food, medication and supplies, as required.

The animals shall remain the sole property of Kenosha Forgotten Friends, and shall be returned to KFF upon request. The Foster Caretaker does not have any right or authority to assume ownership of the fosters, or to place them in other homes or with other individuals, unless permission is given by Kenosha Forgotten Friends staff.

The Foster Caretaker agrees to closely observe the animals for signs of illness, and if a change in a animal's status is noted, will contact KFF immediately to request instructions on steps that need to be taken. At the direction of KFF Staff, KFF reserves the right to inspect the premises in which the animals will be maintained, for the purpose of determining the suitability of those premises for the care and maintenance of the animal(s).

Kenosha Forgotten Friends does not assume liability for any injuries or expenses that may be incurred by volunteers, visitors or family members, whether caused by an animal or other source. By signing this agreement, the Foster Caretaker agrees to defend, indemnify and hold Kenosha Forgotten Friends, its volunteers, its supporters and its animal harmless from any direct or remote and consequential damages arising out of this foster care arrangement.

I have read and agree to all terms and conditions outlined in this agreement. I will provide the animals with the kindest and best care possible.
